Any New Zealand whānau can apply for assistance through WIIE for whānau planning. You will need a legal entity or Family or Whānau Trust to manage any funding your whānau may receive to implement parts of your whānau plan. Funding may be provided to Whānau Ora providers and to whānau groups through Te Puni Kōkiri regional offices. Additional copies of this form can be downloaded from www.tpk.govt.nz/ or you can obtain hard copies from any Te Puni Kōkiri office.

Funding can be used for:

- Undertaking specific parts of a whānau plan;

- Developing and providing information and resources for whānau.

Funding may not be used for:

- Items of a capital nature including buildings and vehicles;

- Payment of existing debts;
- Development of individual or privately owned businesses;
- Overseas travel and associated costs; and
